

Family Member Role Male Scenario

When asked by the team, his family member let us know:

He complained of vision loss in his right eye two days ago. He described that his vision got black from the top as if there was a black drape. The episode lasted about two minutes and resolved spontaneously. He did not complain of headache, eye ball pain, or weakness of arm and leg. He had three similar episodes after the first event.